ABOUT THE PRACTICE

Bridging Hope Counseling proudly serves as a resource in our communities and aspires to spark more conversation and advancement for mental health awareness. We offer a variety of mental health services for individuals, teens, couples, and families at our three Twin Cities metro locations: Buffalo, Lino Lakes, and Rogers. Our approach is non-judgmental and focuses on encouraging a sense of belonging.

With more than ten years of experience leading Dialectical Behavioral Therapy \(DBT\) skills groups, we are one of the Twin Cities' leading providers of this type of group therapy. Groups are conducted with an experiential and creative approach, including equine therapy, painting, and yoga.

WHO ARE WE?

Here at Bridging Hope, we believe that we serve our clients best when we take care of our practice from the inside out.

It begins with the heart of our organization, and that is our talented team of compassionate, experienced therapists. The wellness of our therapists is an organizational focus.

We understand that success and fulfillment are unique to the individual. We ensure schedules offer flexibility for personal development and balancing work/life commitments.

We empower our therapists to form relational connections with their clients and after the first visit, clients and therapists communicate directly.

We refrain from competition among team members and encourage collaboration. We aim to create a culture of authenticity, belonging, and accountability. We want to help you hone your unique strengths to reach the underserved and overlooked in our communities.
